

Gruppo di Interesse SIDI
in Bioetica e Biodiritto
Internazionale ed Europeo

WORKSHOP

RIGHT TO ENJOY THE BENEFITS OF SCIENCE AND FREEDOM OF RESEARCH

28 September 2017 – h. 14.30
room A1 – Campus Luigi Einaudi
Lungo Dora Siena 100 – Turin

WELCOME

---

LUDOVICA POLI & ADRIANA DI STEFANO SIDI Interest Group

SIMONE PENASA Progetto Biodiritto

CESARE ROMANO Loyola University Los Angeles

PANEL 1

h. 15.00

---

GIACOMO D'AMICO University of Messina

From freedom of science to right to science as an antidote to scientific divide

ILJA R. PAVONE National Research Council – Roma

Moving towards fair and equitable benefit-sharing in research: the Nagoya Protocol and its implementation

Discussant: Prof. ROSARIO SAPIENZA University of Catania

PANEL 2

h. 17.00

---

SIMONA FANNI University of Cagliari

Theorizing an equitable and promising future for scientific progress in Africa: a bioethical and human rights-based approach to clinical trials

INGRID CANGELOSI Carlo Cattaneo University – LIUC

Patent pool, right to health and access to medicines. Perspectives of comparative law in different countries

TAMAS KARDOS Hungarian Civil Liberties Union – Budapest

Hidden research on new psychoactive substances in Hungary

Discussant: Prof. MICHELE GRAZIADEI University of Torino

The debate on the right to science will continue at the International Conference on 'Right to science and freedom of research on narcotic and psychotropic substances', organized by Associazione Luca Coscioni:

Aula Magna CLE, 29 September 2017, h. 9.00-19.00