

Strategic litigation in the migration and mobility field: Current developments and critical perspectives

16 - 18 February 2022

Turin - Luigi Einaudi University Campus | Online on Cisco Webex

The Turin Winter School on EU Integration, Law and Justice is hosted by the Law Department of the University of Turin and is part of the 2019-2022 Jean Monnet Module on "EU Mobility and Migration Law", supported by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.

The third edition of the Turin Winter School focuses on the role that strategic litigation plays in advancing rights in the area of mobility and migration in Europe. The programme combines theoretical approaches and practical insights. It includes reflections on the advances and pitfalls of strategic litigation, with a focus on the actors involved and on the procedural tools for an effective access to courts at the supranational level.

The final programme will be made public soon.

The Turin Winter School mainly targets young researchers, Ph.D. candidates, graduate students and practitioners. A maximum of 35 participants from UniTo will be allowed to attend in person. Live streaming sessions will be available for the other participants.

Attendance is free of charge. Registration required at: turinwinterschool@gmail.com. Please contact us for additional information.

Scientific committee: Virginia Passalacqua, Francesco Costamagna, Alberto Miglio, Stefano Montaldo, Andrea Spagnolo.

