

Future-Proof Legal Services. How Innovation, Legal Tech and AI Have Been Reshaping the Legal Market

Friday, 15 November 2024 | Turin | AULA MAGNA RETTORATO via Po 17 | 9:30 – 17:45

Final Conference Jean Monnet Module RETEL (Reshaping Education for Tomorrow's European Lawyers)

9.30 Welcome address and institutional greetings

Direction of the Department of Law

Germana Bertoli - Ordine degli Avvocati di Torino

Riccardo de Caria - Module Leader RETEL

9.40 Keynote speech - Michel Cannarsa

10.00 panel 1 - The legal services market: law and economics considerations - Chair Carlo Rossi Chauvenet

Frederic Marty, Université Côte d'Azur, Université Paris Panthéon Sorbonne & Bruno Deffains, Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas – Revolution of market for legal services | Umberto Nizza, Università di Torino - Bridging the justice gap: Can AI make legal services more accessible and less lawyer-centric? | Gentjan Skara, Epoka University - Transformation of the legal services in the era of digitalisation | Riccardo de Caria,

University of Turin - The legal services market between Eu-driven liberalisation and continuing national restrictions | Silvia Martinelli, University of Turin - Ecodesign and sustainable products initiatives

11.30 Coffee break

12.00 panel 2 - The new legal professions and the education of tomorrow's lawyers - Chair Silvia Martinelli

Erik Vermeulen, Tilburg University - It's time to give law students what they need: Rethinking legal education for the digital age | Felicity Bell & Justine Rogers, University of New South Wales in Sydney - Locating 'the vanguard of innovation': Change management in legal practice |

Macarena Plaza, IE Law School - The integration of artificial intelligence and legal technology in the training of new legal professionals | Dirk Hartung, SMU Yong Pung How School of Law - Future-proof legal education: Developing technological proficiency and advanced skills at the nexus of law and technology | Piotr Tereszkiwicz, Jagiellonian University and Cornell Law School - Law and technology in the law school curriculum: Tech law clinics across European law schools

13.30 Light lunch

14.30 panel 3 - The impact of technology on the legal services industry - Chair Umberto Nizza

Ran Wang, Renmin University of China & Xiuwen Yao, China Institute of Intelligence Rule of Law, Tianjin University & Jiao He, Renmin University of China - The GenAI-powered legal tech: Application, risk and governance | Alexandra Andhov, University of Auckland, University of Copenhagen & Olga Kokoulina, University of Copenhagen - When Compliance Diverges: Legal Interpretations and Tech Understandings? |

Olga V. Mack, law.MIT.edu & CodeX, The Stanford Center for Legal Informatics & Kassi Burns, King & Spalding LLP & Richard Finkelman, Berkeley Research Group LLC - The Legal AI Maturity Model (LAMM): A framework for building innovative technology solutions in the legal profession | Teresa Rodríguez de las Heras Ballel, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid - AI- provided and AI-assisted legal advice: promises and perils | Karolina Mania, Jagiellonian University - Assessment of the legal tech industry's potential

16.00 Roundtable - Chair: Cristina Poncibò

Tommaso Agnoloni, Mia Callegari, Jacopo Ciani, Marco Ciurcina, Anna De Stefano, Alberto Oddenino, Alessandra Quarta, Shaira Thobani

17.30 Concluding remarks - Riccardo de Caria

17.45 End

Organising committee: Riccardo de Caria, Silvia Martinelli, Chiara di Cicco

Evento accreditato dall'Ordine degli Avvocati di Torino | registrazione Riconosco | 6 crediti formativi

Unito Law students attending the whole day will earn 1 CFU for "Other Activities"

Link for online participation: <https://unito.webex.com/meet/riccardo.decaria>

For any information: chiara.dicicco@unito.it | www.retel.unito.it