

UNIVERSITÀ
DI TORINO

Università di Torino
Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

program

Thursday 11th May > 14:30

WELCOME REMARKS

Raffaele Caterina (Director of the Department of Law, University of Turin)

INTRODUCTION

Stefano Montaldo (University of Turin)

Valsamis Mitsilegas (University of Liverpool)

Lorenzo Grossio (University of Milan Bicocca)

Session 1

THE THEORISATION AND PLACE OF PROPORTIONALITY OF PENALTIES IN EU CRIMINAL LAW

Conceptualising Proportionality of Penalties in EU Criminal Law

Jacob Öberg (University of Southern Denmark)

General Proportionality as an EU Criminalisation Principle: Challenges and Practice

Gniewomir Wycichowski-Kuchta (University of Warsaw)

Proportionality of Penalties and the Functions of Criminal Penalties in the EU

Adriano Martufi (University of Pavia)

Coffee break

The Interplay between Proportionality of Criminal Penalties and Other General Principles of EU Criminal Law

Irene Wiczorek (University of Durham)

The Principles of Proportionality and Offensiveness in the European Perspective: A Comparative and Complementary Reading

Vittorio Cama (University of Trento)

Proportionality of Criminal Penalties between EU Law and the ECHR: An Unattainable Convergence of Standards?

Lorenzo Grossio (University of Milan Bicocca - Université Côte d'Azur)

PROPORTIONALITY
OF CRIMINAL PENALTIES
IN EU LAW

Friday 12th May > 09:30

Session 2

THE ROLE OF PROPORTIONALITY OF PENALTIES IN EU CRIMINAL LAW

Does the EU Legislature Respect its Own Standards and Provide for Proportionate Levels of Penalties?

Chloé Brière (Université Libre de Bruxelles)

Violations of EU Sanctions and Criminal Penalties: Proportionality at Peril?

Francesca Finelli and Lorenzo Bernardini (University of Luxembourg)

Proportionality and the Sanctions Applicable to Legal Entities in the Commission's Proposal for a Directive on the Violation of EU Restrictive Measures (Art. 7(2)(3)): Does the Label Matter?

Pedro Caeiro (University of Coimbra)

Coffee break

Proportionality of Criminal Penalties and EU Judicial Cooperation

Emanuela Pistoia (University of Teramo)

Proportionality of Criminal Penalties and the Ne Bis in Idem Principle

Araceli Turmo (University of Nantes)

The EU-UK Extradition Arrangement and the Principle of Proportionality:
Some Hints from the UK and Italian Case Law on the EAW

Alessandro Rosanò (University of Valle d'Aosta)

Lunch break

Friday 12th May > 14:30

Session 3

THE IMPACT OF THE EUROPEAN PRINCIPLE OF PROPORTIONALITY OF CRIMINAL PENALTIES ON DOMESTIC LEGAL ORDERS

The Impact of Proportionality of Criminal Penalties under EU Law on Member States' Domestic Criminalisation

Maria Bergstrom (University of Uppsala)

Domestic Substantive Criminal Law and the Role of the Greek Maize Obligation to Impose Proportionate, Effective and Dissuasive Penalties for Violations of EU Law

Stefano Montaldo (University of Turin)

The Influence of Proportionality of Penalties Derived from EU Law on Domestic Criminal Legislation and Sentencing

Marco Pelissero (University of Turin)

Coffee break

Proportionality and Tax-Related Sanctions: A Quest for Consistency

Stefano Ronco (University of Turin)

Proportionality of the Penalty of Confiscation:
Focus on French and Spanish Criminal Laws

Chloé Fauchon (University of Strasbourg – University of Salamanca)

Concluding remarks

Francesco Viganò (Corte Costituzionale – Bocconi University)

PROPORTIONALITY
OF CRIMINAL PENALTIES
IN EU LAW