Art. 1
Establishment and duration of assignment

A comparative evaluation procedure on the basis of qualifications is hereby launched for the award of 26 appointments for freelance work within the framework of the project: 'Study on Trade Secrets Litigation Trends'.

The service must be completed within 3 months from the date of signing, for the activities described in the project referred to in Article 2. Its effectiveness is subject to its publication on the institutional website of the University in accordance with Article 3, Paragraph 54 of the 2008 Budget Law (L. 244/2007), and Article 15 of Legislative Decree No. 33 of 14 March 2013 (transparency).

Art. 2
Scope of the collaboration and job specifications

[...]

The assignment will consist in the collection of judgments on trade secrets litigation in 26 EU member states (France, Germany, Poland, Spain, the Netherlands, Sweden, Ireland, Belgium, Hungary, Austria, Bulgaria, Finland, Greece, Portugal, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Romania, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Luxembourg, Cyprus, Malta). The activity includes:

1. Consultation of national databases on court judgments of civil, criminal and administrative courts;
2. Entry of information in a dedicated online form, according to the instructions of the project leaders;
3. Drafting of reports (approx. 1,000 words) on selected judgments, as requested by the project leaders.

The collaboration will be carried out personally with the use of one's own means, in full autonomy, without subordination.

The contract stipulated does not give rise to any rights as regards access to the University's roles, nor does it constitute entitlement to legal and economic evaluation or recognition and is subject to the incompatibilities of law.

In the event that the cooperation contract is awarded to a regular professional, a copy of appropriate liability and accident insurance documentation must be provided upon conclusion of the contract.

The Department of Law guarantees equality and equal opportunities between men and women for access and treatment at work.
